

Discover the Health Benefits of A2 Ghee: A Nutrient-Rich Superfood

Goseva Pure A2 Gir Cow Ghee stands as a paramount source of holistic nourishment and unparalleled taste, meticulously crafted through the traditional 'Bilona' method. Derived from the pure A2 milk of Gir cows, this ghee embodies the essence of purity and authenticity. The Bilona method, a time-honored technique, involves churning the curd using a wooden churner to preserve the nutritional integrity.
