

Exploring GVT and PGVT Tiles by Lonix Ceramica

When it comes to designing modern spaces, tiles play a critical role in defining aesthetics, durability, and functionality. Lonix Ceramica, known for its innovative approach to Gvt tile manufacturing, offers a stunning range of GVT (Glazed Vitrified Tiles) and PGVT (Polished Glazed Vitrified Tiles) that elevate interiors to new heights.

What Makes GVT and PGVT Tiles Special?

GVT tiles feature a glazed surface that allows for endless design possibilities—from natural stone looks to wood textures and intricate digital patterns. Thanks to advanced Gvt tile manufacturing techniques, these tiles combine high strength with captivating beauty, making them suitable for living rooms, kitchens, and commercial areas alike.

PGVT tiles, on the other hand, go through an additional polishing process, giving them a refined, mirror-like shine. This polished surface enhances the colors and designs, creating a luxurious feel that's perfect for spaces where elegance matters most, such as hotel lobbies, showrooms, and upscale residences.
